Nice front rooms, hot and cold baths, large front yard, accommodations first-class. No. 104 corner Henry street and Sixth avenue, near new postoffice.

BABY CARRIAGES.
Overstreet & Thurman have the prettiest line of carriages we have seen this season, and they are selling them so cheap. Notice samples in their windows at No. 20 Campbell avenue s. w.

MUCH FINE TALENT.
Miss Frances E. Ball, of Salem, whose voice has been trained at the Peabody Institute, in Baltimore; Miss Hennie G. Hopkins, whose sympathetic soprano has won many admirers; and Miss Letitia Gehrett, one of Mrs. Hodgson's best contralto pupils, will all be heard in solos at the Trinity Church choir entertainment to-morrow night. Don't miss the opportunity. "Sol Smith Russell ain't in it!" No fancy prices.

Polk Miller is coming to Roanoke.

POLICE COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Justice Wood, of the police court, made a partial investigation yesterday morning of the assault on the store of Antone & Co., the Syrian establishment that was mobbed last Saturday night, with the result that D. C. Dolan, Nat Hundley and Will Turner were fined $15 each. The two latter who were present declared they were not only not in the row, but had never been near the place and claimed if given time that they would establish their innocence. The justice thereupon released them on bail and promised to grant them a new hearing if they could produce evidence justifying him in doing so. A capias, however, was issued for Dolan, who did not appear at the trial. Mrs. A. Rose, her daughter Inez and a young man named McCarthy were fined $15 on the charge of selling liquor without a license.

MR. RUSSELL'S ENTERTAINMENT.

The performance of Sol Smith Russell at the Academy of Music to-night will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

THE POSITIONS IN DEMAND

Although applications for the positions of janitor and watchman at the public building in this city will be received until the 20th of March, about one hundred persons have already signified their intention of competing in the examinations for these places. The salary is only $900 each per annum, but it is very probable that the number of applications will be materially increased.

TRAFFIC STILL DELAYED.

Trains on the Ohio extension of the Norfolk and Western are still delayed by washouts and landslides, and the probabilities are that some days will elapse before traffic will be fully resumed there.

THEY COMPLAIN.

Some complaint has been made about the rate which the cars are running down Jefferson street, from Ninth avenue to Church street. People who observe the running of the cars down this grade say that much more than six miles is made. They complain that danger exists in many ways as long as this is allowed to exist.

NEW THING IN TOWN.

G. F. Shafer, of St. Louis, is canvassing the city for the sale of the Stephenson adding machine. This little machine, almost small enough to hide in the corner of your vest pocket, is a wonder in its way. It will add a column of figures a foot tall before the average brain could get a start up the column. So simple any child can use it. It is infallible in results. Its cost is insignificant compared with its practical usefulness.

DECLINED THE CALL.

While Rev. R. W. Patton, rector of Christ Church, was up in New York on his tour in the interest of the church debt he received a call to one of the largest churches near New York city. He was wanted as assistant rector, the rector in charge being a very old man. This church has about one thousand communicants, and is a very prosperous organization. Mr. Patton, however, considered this his entire duty consisted in staying in Roanoke and entirely freeing his charge of the debt now hanging over the church. The offer made to Mr. Patton carried with it a very handsome increase over the salary he receives for his labors here. He, however, felt that money is the least thing to be desired or aimed after by one of God's ministers and he declined the offer without a single moment's hesitation, nor has he experienced one moment's regret at his action. It is of such stuff that true preachers of the Word are made.

Who will hear Polk Miller?

A HOME MARRIAGE.
W. R. Boardman and Mrs. Fannie E. Doss were married on the evening of February 22, at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride, No. 316 Third avenue, e. by Rev. T. J. Shipman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

WORK TO BEGIN SOON.

Capt. T. J. Mitchell received a telegram yesterday morning from Winston, N. C., to the effect that General Manager Miller, of the Interstate Telephone Company, would come to this city at once to proceed with the construction of the new exchange for this city.

EXPERT ACCOUNTANT EMPLOYED.

At a meeting of the finance committee of the City Council yesterday morning in the office of the clerk of the Council, W. E. Callahan, of Lynchburg, was selected to make the examination of books of the city officers. Mr. Callahan is said to be an expert accountant, and has already done some work in this city in recently checking off the books of the Toms Creek Company. He will enter upon his task to-day.

Polk Miller is coming soon.

MRS. WILMETH DEAD.

Mrs. Laura Wilmeth, mother of Mrs. J. W. Wilmeth, died Tuesday night at the residence of the latter, No. 515 Shenandoah avenue n. e. She was 75 years old and had been ill for two weeks. Besides her relatives in this city she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Crews, of Salisbury, N. C., and until the latter is heard from no disposition will be made of the remains.

SIDETRACKED IN WEST VIRGINIA.

The furniture for the new postoffice building, which was shipped from Cincinnati some days ago, has been sidetracked somewhere in West Virginia by the recent washouts on the Ohio extension of the Norfolk and Western, and in consequence Postmaster Dupuy does not know when his new quarters will be ready for occupancy. The postoffice, however, will be moved there as soon as the furniture arrives and is put in position.

TO MORROW'S CONCERT.

The concert and entertainment to be given by the choir and soloists of Trinity Church, corner of Commerce and Church streets, on Friday evening, promises to be one of rare excellence. The choir will have its final rehearsal to-night and is in excellent spirits, as the success of its debut seems to be an assured fact. Most of the tickets have been sold, and the reserved seats can only be obtained at the door of the church on the night of the concert; therefore, come early if you wish to occupy a selected seat. Entrance for general admission on Commerce street; reserved seats at side door on Church street.

Polk Miller to pay us a visit.

SOCIAL HOP AND SUPPER.

The social hop and supper, given by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen in honor of the ladies' society of the organization, was a grand success, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was unpleasant, and many were deterred from attending. The music for the occasion was furnished by Devan's Orchestra, and Connelman Stevenson also did much to make the time pass pleasantly. The Hobble Piano Company kindly loaned the Brotherhood a piano for the occasion. The committee having the matter in charge was up to date, and showed that they had been painstaking and careful in all the arrangements made for a pleasant time. The supper was served in excellent style and much enjoyed by all who had the good fortune to attend.

CHARITY BALL PROCEEDS.

The net proceeds of the charity ball by Roanoke Iron Moulders' Union No. 261 amounted to $114.90, which amount was turned over to Mrs. Mary A. Kennedy, a widow with several small children to support. The union desires to publicly extend its thanks to the Roanoke Light Infantry for the use of their hall free of charge; to the Roanoke Machine Works Orchestra, the Dixie Quartette, the Shenandoah Mandolin Club, and Messrs. Crawford and Mitchell, the vocalists, for kind assistance in furnishing beautiful music for the occasion.

Mangus & Paynter, the Commerce street shoe dealers, are offering some rare bargains in special lines of ladies' and gents' shoes.

SOL SMITH RUSSELL.

Sol Smith Russell is known and loved for the purity and freshness of his characterizations and for the delight he gives his audiences. There is not a place where the congenial comedian is known that has not a warm friendship for him, and his appearance in Roanoke is an event that is heartily welcomed. There is no actor on the American stage just like him. The mere mention of his name suffices to invoke a smile—a smile of pleasant reminiscences—for no one ever remembers Sol Smith Russell in anything that was not wholesome and pleasant.

The heartiness with which Mr. Russell has been received in his performance of "David Holmes" in his new comedy, "A Bachelor's Romance," by Martha Morton, is most gratifying to his numerous friends in this city, who will have an opportunity of witnessing this performance at the Academy of Music this evening. A large amount of special scenery, furniture and properties are carried with the company and the supporting artists are said to be selected from the leading New York theatres and form the strongest company Mr. Russell has ever been surrounded with. The advance sale of seats is going on with a rush.

MRS. SELLIGSON WILL PLAY.

Mrs. Ella Gottschalk Selligson will play two of her choicest selections at the concert of the Trinity Church choir to-morrow evening, one of which will be "Trovatore Transcription" by Louis Moreau Gottschalk, her kinsman, and most prominent of American composers.

Look out for Polk Miller.

RAILROAD Y. M. C. A.

The following testimony speaks for the Smith Sisters, who will appear at the Academy of Music next Monday night, under the auspices of the association. Prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Reserved seats at Johnson & Johnson's Friday morning. "The voices of the young women are uniformly marked by a sweetness of tone which, when taken together with the perfect blending of the choruses, furnished music fit for any occasion, and equal to the demands of the most exacting audiences. Nearly every number was encored, and when the programme was concluded with 'Home, Sweet Home,' as a chorus number, the audience seemed to prefer a continuation of the pleasant hours they had spent in the attractive church auditorium even to their own homes and firesides." Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester, N. Y.

SUPPER TO-NIGHT.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lee Street M. E. Church will hold a supper to-night at the residence of Mrs. S. D. Barnhart, corner Ninth avenue and Jefferson street. The public is cordially invited.
